Changes to Your Family's Financial Situation

If your or your family's financial situation has changed significantly from what is reflected on your federal income tax return (for example, if you've lost a job or otherwise experienced a drop in income), you may be eligible to have your financial aid adjusted. Complete the FAFSA questions as instructed on the application (including the transfer of tax return and income information), submit your FAFSA form, then contact the school you plan to attend to discuss how your current financial situation has changed. Note that the school's decision is final and cannot be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education. Visit StudentAid.gov/coronavirus for more information.

WA State Higher Education Residency Affidavit

Students must be residents to qualify for Washington in-state tuition rates at public institutions and meet residency requirements for state financial aid programs at participating schools. The Residency Affidavit is one way to show you are a resident. The affidavit is a promise between you and the institution determining residency. To be able to certify this affidavit, you must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Earn a high school diploma, GED, or diploma equivalent before your first term at the college determining residency.
- Maintain a primary residence in Washington for at least 12 consecutive months immediately before your first term at the college determining residency, and
- Promise that one of the following is true:
 - You will file an application to become a permanent resident of the United States as soon as you are eligible to apply. And, that you are also willing to engage in activities designed to prepare you for citizenship, including citizenship or civics review courses, or
 - You are a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident.

Please choose one of the following

I certify that, by the official start date of my first term at the college determining residency, I will have met the eligibility requirements above.

I will not meet the eligibility requirements above by the official start date of my first term at the college determining residency. I want to learn other ways to meet residency requirements for in-state tuition and state financial aid.

Other Options to Sign and Submit

? We recommend signing electronically with an FSA ID so you don't have to print and mail a signature page or return later to sign this FAFSA. If you are unable to sign electronically, select another option:

Sign Electronically With My FSA ID
This is the fastest option. Selecting this option will return you to the question "What is your (the parent's) FSA ID?".

Print A Signature Page
This option requires that you print and mail your signature.

Submit Without Signatures
This option allows you to submit this FAFSA now without your signature, but you will need to return later to sign.

Dear JOHN SMITH,

Your Student Aid Report (SAR) summarizes the information you submitted on your 2018-2019 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Application Status (review the checked boxes)

- Your FAFSA appears to be complete. Review the data on pages 3-10 of your SAR and make corrections or updates if necessary. The school(s) listed on your FAFSA will receive your information.
- Your FAFSA has been selected for verification. Verification is a process where your school confirms the data you reported on your FAFSA. Your school has the authority to contact you for documentation that supports income and other information that you reported on your FAFSA.

Consejo:

Lea atentamente esta carta de presentación.

Si necesita ayuda, por favor contáctenos.

Si ve un asterisco al lado de su EFC, lo han seleccionado para un proceso de verificación.

Reúna sus documentos financieros para entregar a la oficina de ayuda financiera.
