

Documents you will need to file 2024-25 WASFA

<https://wsac.wa.gov/wasfa>

For undocumented students, including those with DACA (even if expired)

Document	Student	Biological/Adoptive parent(s)
 Social Security number	Only if student has DACA Note: If you don't have one, you may still file WASFA (you can also use your ITIN number or leave it blank)	If parent has SSN Note: If neither of your parents has one, will leave this field blank.
 -Dates of birth -Marriage, divorce, separation date(s)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
 2022 Federal tax returns, W2s (or 1099), Schedule K-1 (1065)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
 Annual child support received Only report the total amount received for the last full calendar year (can be found in court orders, child support state agency, financial records)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
 Cash, savings and checking account balances Amounts as of the day WASFA is submitted.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
 Investments (stocks, bonds, mutual funds, 529 plans, rental properties) excluding home where family lives and retirement accounts Current net worth of all businesses and investment farms (net worth = value of the business or farm minus any debt)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

What assets you should NOT report:

- Home where you and your family live
- Life insurance policies
- Retirement plans (i.e., 401(K), 403(b), pensions, etc.)
- 529 accounts with a beneficiary other than the student applicant and 529 accounts held by individuals other than the students and/or parent (i.e., if the holder is the grandparent, it should not be reported)

Note: Students will create an account and give consent. Electronic Signature requires typing name and last name on the application. Students who have access to at least one parent will have to invite a parent to sign the application electronically by adding the parent's email address in their applications. Parents will receive an invitation to complete and sign the form electronically.